

J. C. Tuck.—Senator from the sixth district, was born in Haldimand county, Ontario, Canada, May 20, 1866. In 1891 he moved to Corning, Iowa, where he has since resided. He received his education in the common schools of the place of his birth. Was married to Hattie May Anderson in 1894. Member of Episcopal church. Is a Mason and K. P. Elected senator, 1920. A republican in politics.

J. C. TUCK

Senator from the Sixth district, was born in Haldimand county, Ontario, Canada, May 20, 1866. In 1891 he moved to Corning, Iowa, where he has since resided. He received his education in the common schools of the place of his birth. Was married to Hattie May Anderson in 1894. Member of Episcopal church. Is a Mason and K. P. Elected senator, 1920. A republican in politics.